NORTHVIEW

Harrison County's Newest Town is Certainly on the Move.

NORTHVIEW, Mar. 2.—Mud is two feet deep and still drilling. Since the town has been incorporated, Uncle Mart says he is selling more goods than before.

Already some of the people who were threatened with a raise on their rent if the town was incorporated, are moving into property belonging to men who believe in living and let live. Renters here are glad that Northview has some men who do not live only for themselves, but are willing that others shall live also.

John Sehon says a man must have more chickens than he has in order to get more eggs than he does.

Dick Clure, trader, is still doing business at the old stand.

Let every voter go out Friday night and help to nominate a good ticket.

MEDICAL SCHOOL TONIGHT.

A meeting of the Harrison County Post Graduate Medical School will be held tonight in the Empire building. Papers to be read by Drs. H. H. and R. A. Haynes are on the program.

Do You Know I t

Do you know that the American style luncheon and dinner at the Waldo cost only fifty cents? Well, it is an important fact.

There are meals and meals, but there is none just like these fifty-cent luncheons and dinners. They are good, "square" meals and are pleasing and satisfying in every particular. In fact, they are the same kind that bring a dollar in the city hotels. Take a look at the menu and you will see.
